ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

SCHOOL BOARD OF SOUTH HAMPTON, N. H.

THE CENTRE.

By a special arrangement, agreeable to a vote of the Town, this school and the Barnard School were united, and the move is without doubt a wise one on the part of the Town, as it saves the unnecessary expense of employing two teachers, where an efficient one is equal to the task.

The teacher, Mrs. Harriett Hooper, came well recommended to your committee, and she has surely shown that she is well skilled in the art of teaching.

While the school was under the supervision of the Town's committee, (which was only the first term, eleven weeks) we were highly pleased with her methods of teaching, and a marked progress was made by the pupils.

UPPER VILLAGE.

MISS FANNIE B. EATON AND ANNIE GILES, TEACHERS.

Notwithstanding the fact that this school has been afflicted with much sickness both of teachers and pupils, it has made good progress, and the committee are well satisfied with the work accomplished.

Miss Eaton entered upon her duties with the same ambition and determination that have won her so many successes as a teacher, but much to the regret of the committee and the community, she worked beyond her strength, which resulted in a lingering illness, which prevented her from entering upon her duties the second term. Your committee were fortunate however, in securing Miss Annie Giles as teacher for the second term.

This was Miss Giles' first school, but she entered into the work with pride and zeal. The school made good progress under her charge, and her thoroughness in each department proved her efficiency and natural ability as a teacher, and reflected much credit upon herself and brought prosperity to the school.

Miss Eaton was again induced to take charge of the school the third term, and had not the prevailing epidemic "la grippe" visited nearly every family, this would have been a very successful term.

Although the attendance was quite small at some periods, Miss Eaton did not get discouraged and the examination was such as only diligent work by both teacher and pupil could have accomplished.

THE PEAK.

MISS GRACE E. PRESCOTT, TEACHER.

This was Miss Prescott's third year as a teacher in this school and from the first she has proved herself a competent, faithful teacher, the school making excellent progress under her care.

It was very pleasing and gratifying to the committee to visit this school and note the interest manifested in the work of each pupil from the youngest to the oldest, each one excelling in some particular branch, which together with the careful, earnest attention paid at recitation goes to prove the fact that this school has not only been well disciplined, but that a personal interest in the welfare of each pupil has been felt by the teacher.

Good progress has been made in English Grammar, Arithmetic, U. S. History and Reading. Physiology has been taken as a general exercise and the school passed an exceptionally fine examination in this branch.

The copy books present a neat, painstaking condition, as do also the spelling blanks, a large per cent. of the words written being correct.

It is to be regretted that a larger number of the parents and friends were not present at the examination.

GENERAL REMARKS.

A set of E. B. Goodrich & Co's. complete school charts has been purchased for each school.

These charts comprise Reading, Writing, Physiology, Civil Government, Drawing and the Phonics. The chart complete cost but slightly more than would the outline maps, if purchased separately, and are much more convenient.

We would recommend that the town raise a sum not exceeding seventy-five dollars for the purchase of books, etc., the coming year.

On account of the increase in number of children of school age who will most likely attend school next term, it will be necessary to purchase quite a number of new books.

In closing let us urge more frequent visits to the school on the part of the parents and friends, which will not only satisfy ourselves in regard to the progress made by the school, but will at the same time encourage both teacher and pupil.

ROLL OF HONOR.

Pupils not absent for one year—Bertha Downing, Foster Towle, Walter I. Downing.

Pupils not absent for two terms—J. Derby Eaton, Abbie M. Evans, Edith M. Follansbee.

Pupils not absent for one term—Neddie E. Dorman, Flora M. Purinton, Nettie B. Follansbee, Ethel D. Evans, J. Ella Follansbee, Neva E. Giles, Arthur M. French.

SKETCH OF THE SOUTH HAMPTON, N. H., FARMERS' CLUB.

The South Hampton Farmers' Club dates its history as an organization, from March 28, 1887. At that time, pursuant to a notice posted by Rev. W. K. Davey, thirteen persons assembled at the Selectmen's Office, in the Town Hall, and after a temporary organization had been effected, it was the unanimous sentiment of those present, that the formation of a Club to promote the interest of Agriculture and Horticulture in this community was advisable and desirable. Accordingly, a committee was chosen to adopt suitable Constitutions and By-Laws for the government of such an organization; and a committee was also chosen to prepare a premium list, for a fair to be held sometime during the following Autumn.

On Thursday Evening, March 31, 1887, the before mentioned committees submitted their reports, and the Club was formally organized and a board of officers chosen. The following is a list of the officers:

President, Rev. William K. Davey.

Vice President, Herbert J. Brown.

Secretary, Joseph J. J. Sawyer.

Treasurer, George M. Buxton.

Janitor, Charles R. Jewell.

Executive Committee, John Paige, James M. Carr, Jacob Eaton, Charles R. Jewell, Isaiah F. Purinton.

The number of members at this time was sixteen.

The first business was to perfect arrangements looking toward the holding of a Fair and Festival the succeeding Autumn.

The membership increased quite rapidly, until the number of seventy-five ladies and gentlemen was reached, at which point it has held substantially ever since.

The first fair was largely an experiment, and but few were sanguine enough to think that any considerable exhibit could be made. But the result largely exceeded the hopes of its projectors, and this, as indeed each succeeding fair, proved to be a complete success, and a credit to the Club and the community as well.

One thing has been noticeable throughout our whole career, viz. : That the quality of the articles exhibited have steadily advanced, and the standard of excellence is ever a rising one.

That the Club has done much to promote the cause of Agriculture and Horticulture in our midst, we think none can question, and it is fair to presume that its future influence will be as potent as the past has been.

Not only has the community been benefited by the fairs and public gatherings, but the meetings that have been held from time to time, with the pleasant social intercourse and friendly discussions have been of much benefit to all who have availed themselves of them, and it is to be regretted that more have not attended these regular meetings.

In closing this short sketch of the rise and progress of this institution, we desire to state that while we labor primarily for our own benefit as members of the Club, yet we are always ready to do any service that will tend in any way to advance the interests of the community ; and we desire that all people of the town would become active and useful members of our Club.

The expense is no barrier, as membership costs but a very trifling sum, and so far no assessments has ever been called for, outside the established yearly dues, for any purpose whatever, and we will say right here that financially, the Club was never in so good a condition as at the present time.

While premiums awarded have never been of large sums, as it has ever been the policy of the Club to make the monetary value of secondary importance. Yet all premiums awarded have been fully paid, and each and every member is expected to receive all premiums awarded ; no donations have ever been requested or desired.

The amount of premiums paid out has usually been equal to the amount received for membership yearly dues. We can hardly conceive of any reason why every adult person in town should not be enrolled in our list of members, and to all not now members, we extend a cordial invitation to join us, and to labor with us for the common good.

The next annual Fair and Festival of the Club will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, October 5 and 6, 1892.

FIFTH ANNUAL FAIR AND HARVEST FESTIVAL
OF THE
SOUTH HAMPTON FARMERS' CLUB,
SEPTEMBER 30 AND OCTOBER 1 AND 2, 1891.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The Fifth Annual Fair of the Club was an event that must long be remembered, and noted not only in the history of this Club, but also in the annals of this quiet community. The fact of a larger exhibit than ever before ; the kindly farewell to its honored first Presiding Officer ; and lastly, the presence of the Chief Executive of the State, in his official capacity, tend to make the dates of September 30, and October 1 and 2, 1891, of no small moment to this town.

Nature for once, on the occasion of our Annual Fair, was in a smiling mood, and gave that fine glorious weather, such as only can be seen and felt in the New England Autumn.

The first day was, as it always must be, a day of busy preparations. Entries came in promptly, and, thanks to assistance rendered the Secretary by the President and others, the books were given to the Judges of award in good season.

The Town Hall, where the exhibits were placed, was tastefully decorated with flags and streamers of bunting, and this, with a more elaborate floral display than ever before, produced a very fine effect.

The church was also appropriately decked with garlands and evergreens for this occasion. The display of fruits and vegetables was a fine one, but above all was the show of Indian corn ; none better was ever displayed in this home of the maize plant. And perhaps here we may as well state that Mr. Charles Nason of Hampton Falls, commissioned by the United States Department of Agriculture, visited the fair on the second day, to select samples of corn and grain to be exhibited at Chicago, at the Columbian Exposition in 1893, and expressed himself as highly pleased with the excellence of the exhibit. A list of samples taken is given elsewhere, from this the only officially recognized society, holding a fair in Rockingham County.

Space forbids an extended notice of the different classes of articles, but it can be said with truth, that this Fifth Exhibit has never been excelled in point of quality, taken together, and was larger in quantity than any previous effort.

The second day of the fair came clear, crisp and frosty, soon mellowed by the autumn sunshine.

The judges of awards finished their labors early in the day.

The attendance was larger than had been looked for.

The Annual Dinner came off at one o'clock, in Barnard Hall. At its close, Mr. Albert Downing, in a few well chosen remarks, presented in behalf of the members of the Club and their friends, to Ex-President Davey, the sum of twenty dollars. Mr. Davey responded feelingly and made a short address, thanking the donors for the unexpected gift.

The evening exercises at the Church consisted of select readings by Miss Willa K. Dresser, of Haverhill, Mass., and short addresses by President Jewell and Secretary Sawyer.

Friday, October 2, dawned clear and beautiful ; a more perfect day could hardly have been produced by any combination of the elements whatever.

President Jewell, in the morning hours was driven to Exeter, N. H., to meet the guests of the day and convey them thither. He returned, arriving at one P. M., accompanied by His Excellency, Governor Hiram A. Tuttle, with Gen. Albert M. Dow, and Col. Rufus N. Elwell of his personal staff, and Hon. John D. Lyman, county member of the State Board of Agriculture.

The carriage was met at the town line, at the upper end of Main Avenue, by mounted police Albert Downing, with Dr. Thomas H. Chivers and John W. Downing as aids, and the Kingston Brass Band, and escorted down Main Avenue, amid the salute of cannon and the ringing of the church bell, during the line of march ; arriving at the Town Hall the party were greeted with hearty cheers.

Dinner was soon served in the Social Hall, after which the visitors looked over the exhibition, and witnessed the base ball game. At four o'clock P. M., President Jewell announced that a few short addresses would be made in front of the hall, and introduced the well known "Farmer Holt," of Epping, N. H., whose address was chiefly an appeal for a railroad, from "Suncook to the Sea," via this town. His remarks elicited much applause.

Governor Tuttle appeared and made a few well chosen remarks, and was followed by several other gentlemen with short addresses.

At the conclusion of these exercises, the Gubernatorial party were taken in carriage by President B. R. Jewell and Frank M. Jewell Esq., and driven to Amesbury, Mass. ; there they were accorded the pleasant privilege of a visit to the aged poet, John G. Whittier, the Sweet Singer of the Merrimac, who happened to be stopping a short time at his Amesbury home. On their return, supper was served in Social Hall.

It was estimated that not less than one thousand persons were in attendance, during the afternoon.

The closing exercises of the day took place at the church, at 7.30 P. M., which included short addresses by Gov. Tuttle, Gen. Dow, Col. Elwell, Hon. J. D. Lyman, President Benjamin R. Jewell, and Albert Downing, all of which were well received and attentively listened to. Following these was a reception by the Governor and the members of his staff, when all present availed themselves of the opportunity to grasp the hand of a "real live Governor."

At the close of the reception, a carriage in waiting took the visitors back to Exeter, N. H., departing amid cheers which were heartily responded to in kind by the Governor and his companions, so closing an event marred by no untoward accident or mishap, that will ever be remembered with pride by the dwellers of this place and their successors.

The only circumstance that could cause any regret, throughout the entire session of the fair, was, that this was a parting time with our first President, Rev. William K. Davey, who is soon to remove from our midst, and probably never to reside in this town again. No one has labored more earnestly than has he for our promotion and advancement, and but for his labor, it is doubtful that the Club had ever had an existence; though now we part with him, yet his earnest zeal and the fund of knowledge he has imparted to us from his richly stored mind, will long be held in remembrance; and we are of the opinion that this community has been richly blest by the sojourn of Rev. Mr. Davey in their midst. The length of this report has been necessary to record thus imperfectly the many events of this fair, and the secretary will prolong it but little further. As in former reports he wishes to return thanks for the courtesy and forbearance of the members toward him in the busy time of this Annual Fair, as well as at all other times, and congratulating the Club on its many successes in the past as well as the present time, and hoping for still larger and broader lines of usefulness in the future, would draw this Fifth Annual Fair Report to a close.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH J. J. SAWYER, SECRETARY.

SOUTH HAMPTON, N. H., October 1891.
